

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP IS CONTAGIOUS!

“CATCH IT”

Promoting sportsmanship, ethics, and integrity in extracurricular activities should be part of the challenge to students to excel. Help us choose the member of the Coshocton High School community who exemplifies the true meaning of sportsmanship. We would like to take this opportunity to recognize our students, fans, faculty, and coaches for showing the positive side of life. Have you noticed anyone doing any of the following:

- Treating opponents and officials with respect that is due them as guests and fellow human beings.*
- Shaking hands with opponents.*
- Taking victory or defeat without undue gloating, or demonstration of undue disappointment.*
- Controlling tempers on and off the playing field.*
- Cooperating with the coaches and fellow players in trying to promote good sportsmanship.*
- Being positive with opponents, refraining from making insulting remarks to their opponents.*
- Letting audiences know that inappropriate behavior reflects poorly on the team and school.*
- Any other acts of good sportsmanship*

Give us your selection of who you think deserves “The Sportsmanship Award for the Week”. Also, please let us know what prompted you to nominate them for this award.
